We would like to keep in touch with you, by post, email, phone, social media or online, about our products, services and offers that might interest you. You can choose whether you want to receive these communications and can opt out at any time.&nbsp;

We have a legitimate interest in promoting our products and services, but if you ask us not to send you marketing communications, we won't send them. In particular, when we collect contact information that we would like to use to send you marketing, we will give you the opportunity, at that time, to tell us not to send it.&nbsp;

&nbsp;

<h3>Making sure our marketing messages are relevant to you&nbsp;</h3>

We want to make sure the information we send you about our products and services is relevant to you. To do this, we may use your personal data to help us understand your interests better. We may also use details of your computer, laptop, smartphone or tablet (including its IP address) to check you are linked to the right web page after clicking on one of our online adverts. If you visit our websites, we may also use cookies to tell us which marketing to send you. Please see section 11 below for information about cookies.

These approaches help us to make our communications more relevant and interesting for you. Looking at the web pages you've visited and the things you've bought helps us to understand you as a customer better and allows us to provide personalised services, content, communications and online advertising. We may also measure how you respond to our marketing communications to help us understand how effective they are and offer you products and services that better meet your needs.&nbsp;

If you don't want us to personalise our marketing messages to you in this way, you can opt out of personalisation. If you do this, we will not send you any more marketing communications. Please see section 11 below to find out more about how you can control whether we use cookies in marketing to you.

<h4>Tracking technology</h4>

We use industry-standard technology to monitor your engagement with marketing emails and send emails automatically, so that we can send you relevant emails at the right time. We use 'tracking pixels' to recognise when you have opened an email that we sent to you. If you don't want us to use tracking pixels, you can use your email settings so that images are not automatically displayed.

<h3>Changing your marketing preferences</h3>

You can change your marketing preferences at any time. You can do this:

online

over the phone

using the 'unsubscribe' link in our marketing emails

by replying STOP to our marketing text messages

through our apps, or

by writing to us at any time.

If you say you do not want to receive marketing information from us, this will prevent you from receiving offers or hearing about other products which may be of interest to you.

If you have registered through our royalmail.com website, you can change your marketing preferences online at any time through the 'My Account' section of the website at <https://www.royalmail.com/user/login>.

Parcelforce Worldwide account customers can change their preferences through the 'My Profile' section of the Parcelforce Worldwide website at <https://www.parcelforce.com/user/login>

You can also contact our <mailto:information.rights@royalmail.com>) Information Rights and Governance team to ask us to stop sending marketing emails, letters or other forms of direct marketing.

Service information

We may need to send you communications about the service you are using. For example, we send our customers order confirmations, delivery updates, invoices and notice of changes to our terms or prices.
If you choose to opt out of marketing, we may still need to send you this kind of information.

Communication preferences

If you choose to turn off app notifications on your phone, you may still receive notifications and other service messages from us in other ways (for example, by text message, email or letter).

Market research

We like to hear your views as this can help us to improve our products and services. So, from time to time we may contact you to carry out market research or a survey, or ask a market research organisation working for us to do so. You always have the choice about whether to take part in our market research.

safety. These organisations include the police, law enforcement agencies and fraud-prevention agencies. This may include telling other organisations about addresses we will not deliver to or collect from.

If you use our Redirection service, unless you ask us not to, we may sometimes sell information about you to help organisations update their contact details, or so specific types of organisation can send you offers that people moving home may be interested in. You will find more details, including information on how you can choose for us not to sell your information, in the terms and conditions for our Redirection service.

We may pass your name, contact details (such as your email address), and details of your purchases from us, to organisations that help us with market research.

Postal authorities and overseas carriers

We will share your personal data with overseas postal authorities and carriers. If you are sending a letter or parcel overseas or receiving an item from overseas, we will provide the information required for customs and tax purposes or for security screening. This information will normally include:

- the sender's name and address
- the name and address of the person receiving the item, and
- details of the item's contents.

Information required by law or regulation

If required by any law or regulation, we may share your personal data with regulators such as the Information Commissioner.

Please note that preventing cookies is likely to impact the functionality or performance of this Website, or prevent you from using certain services provided through it. If you choose to prevent cookies, we cannot guarantee access to the services provided through this Website or be sure how this Website will perform during your visit. Preventing cookies will also affect our ability to update this Website to cater for user preferences and improve its performance.

The types of cookies we currently use on this Website are set out below. The cookie categories are based on the category definitions contained in the <http://www.international-chamber.co.uk/blog/2012/04/02/launch-of-icc-uk-cookie-guide/> International Chamber of Commerce UK Cookie guide.

Strictly necessary

Strictly necessary cookies are essential to enable you to move around this Website and use its features and/or services. These cookies allow this Website to provide services at the request of users.

This Website use strictly necessary cookies to:

- Identify you as being logged in to this Website
- Remember the goods and services you ordered when you get to the checkout page
- Remember things like information you've entered on order forms when you navigate to different pages during your session on this Website
- Remember things like service selections you have made which are essential for us to provide you with services you have requested
- Make sure you connect to the right service on our website when we make any changes to the way the website works

Performance

Performance cookies allow us to update this Website to cater for Website user preferences and improve performance. They collect information about how this Website is used, e.g. which pages users visit most often and where error messages are delivered. These cookies don't collect information that identifies individuals. All information is aggregated and therefore anonymous.

This Website use performance cookies to:

- Provide statistics on how this Website is used (including selections that you have made and goods and services that you have viewed, during your use of this Website)
- See how effective our adverts are
- Enable us to track and improve this Website by analysing visitor behaviour and results.
- Improve the management and performance of tags on this Website.

Functional

Functional cookies allow this Website to remember choices you make, e.g. your user name, log in details and language preferences and any customisations you make to Website pages during your visit. They are necessary to provide features and services specific to individual users.

This Website use functional cookies to:

- Identify you as having consented to use of cookies by this Website
- Remember settings you've applied (such as layout, text size, preferences and colours)
- Remember selections you have made (such as search functions and results, and goods and services)
- Apply customised content segments to individual users
- Apply users' individual service specifications (such as usage or credit allowance)
- Share information with partners to provide a service on our website. The information shared is only to be used to provide the service, product or function and not for any other purpose

Targeting or advertising cookies

These cookies collect information about your browsing habits on this Website in order to make advertising both on this Website and other websites you subsequently visit relevant to you and your interests, to limit the number of times those adverts are served to you and to help measure the effectiveness of advertising campaigns.

- This website uses the following targeting/advertising cookies:
- Google VDoubleClick (you can learn more about how these cookies operate here: <http://www.google.com/intl/en-GB/policies/technologies/ads/>)
- Turn Audience (you can learn more about how these cookies operate here: <http://www.turn.com/privacy/>)
- Cognitive Match (you can learn more about how these cookies operate here: http://cognitivematch.com/privacy\_policy/)

You can also manage many organisations' cookies used for online advertising at <http://www.youronlinechoices.com/uk/your-ad-choices>
